Current Mahadasha

Male · Pisces Lagna · Moon: Aquarius

Mahadasha — Saturn (2024-02-08 → 2043-02-07)

Your current Mahadasha is of Saturn, extending for a significant nineteen years. Saturn is powerfully placed in your 10th house in Sagittarius, a sign of dharma and higher purpose, and maintains a sufficient Shadbala ratio of 1.0, indicating it has the strength to deliver its promises effectively. This planetary period will define your professional trajectory and public standing, bringing a sustained focus on establishing authority and recognition through structured effort.

Saturn in the 10th house, a cardinal house for career, grants you a strong sense of responsibility and a methodical approach to your work. This placement, reinforced by the 10th house's high Sarvashtakavarga score of 32, promises substantial, albeit often slow and arduous, achievements in your career and public life. You will build enduring structures, overcome obstacles through perseverance, and solidify your reputation over the course of this Mahadasha.

Current Antardasha

Male · Pisces Lagna · Moon: Aquarius

Antardasha — Saturn (2024-02-08 → 2027-02-10)

Currently, you are experiencing the Antardasha of Saturn within its own Mahadasha, a period known for intensifying the qualities of the Mahadasha lord. Saturn, positioned in your 10th house in Sagittarius, strongly influences your career and public image. Its inherent nature demands discipline, hard work, and patience, and with a Shadbala ratio of 1.0, Saturn is robust enough to enforce these demands and yield concrete results. This phase, ending on 2027-02-10, will particularly emphasize your professional responsibilities, prompting you to build a strong foundation through sustained effort. Expect significant focus on your work life, requiring you to navigate challenges with resilience and a practical approach. Saturn's aspect on your 4th house (comfort, home) and 7th house (relationships) suggests that adjustments in these areas will be tied to your professional journey, demanding a balanced approach to your personal and public life. The retrograde transiting Saturn in Pisces, your Lagna, which is 2nd from your Moon sign, indicates that while this period is constructive for building, it may also bring periods of introspection or slower progress as you redefine your personal approach to success. However, its unobstructed status suggests these internal shifts are manageable.

Pratyantardasha — The Next Few Months

Male · Pisces Lagna · Moon: Aquarius

Until 2027-02-10, you are running the Pratyantardasha of Jupiter. Natal Jupiter resides in your 4th house in Gemini and possesses an exceptional Shadbala ratio of 1.45, indicating significant strength and beneficence. This period highlights themes of domestic harmony, education, and inner peace, encouraging you to seek contentment through knowledge and family. Jupiter's influence provides protective and expansive energies in your personal life, fostering a sense of well-being even amidst professional demands. Transiting Jupiter is currently in Cancer, which is your 6th house from the Moon, a neutral position for growth and overcoming minor hurdles; its transit through a sign with an Ashtakavarga score of 24 indicates that efforts here may require more conscious application but will still yield results due to natal Jupiter's strength.

Following this, from 2027-02-10 to 2027-06-30, you will enter the Pratyantardasha of Mercury. Mercury is placed in your 11th house in Capricorn, conjoined with Venus and Rahu, and has a sufficient Shadbala of 0.99. This shift will bring a sharp focus on your social networks, income, and achievements. As Mercury is retrograde, you might re-evaluate your long-term goals and social connections, finding new avenues for gains and collaboration through meticulous planning. After Mercury, the next period is Ketu PD, from 2027-06-30, bringing themes of detachment or spiritual reflection in matters of children and creativity.
