Major red flag

MANGAL DOSHA

Present

The bride carries Mangal Dosha while the partner does not; weigh the cancellations listed rather than rejecting the match.

The Ashtakoota score for your compatibility stands at 17 out of 36, which is below the conventional threshold on the Ashtakoota table. While this initial screening suggests challenges, a deeper analysis reveals significant areas of strength alongside points requiring conscious effort. Your temperaments are largely compatible, promising a natural flow in daily interactions. However, a specific Nadi dosha and differences in emotional rhythm signal areas needing mindful communication and health awareness.

Guna Milan — The Eight Kootas

ASHTAKOOT	SCORE	INTERPRETATION
Varna	0 / 1	Groom Shudra, bride Vaishya — the bride's varna is higher; conscious mutual respect is required.
Vashya	2 / 2	Manava and Manava temperaments — natural mutual influence.
Tara	3 / 3	Counted both ways from Dhanishta and Chitra — both directions auspicious; shared destiny and health support.
Yoni	2 / 4	Lion and Tiger are neutral yonis — adjustment is easy once habits are understood.
Graha Maitri	4 / 5	Moon-sign lords Saturn and Mercury (friend/neutral) — mental wavelengths meet naturally.
Gana	6 / 6	Rakshasa groom with Rakshasa bride — temperaments are compatible.
Bhakoot	0 / 7	Moon signs stand 8/6 from each other — a 6-8 Bhakoot, which classically stresses prosperity and emotional rhythm.

ASHTAKOOT	SCORE	INTERPRETATION
Nadi	0 / 8	Both in Pitta nadi — Nadi dosha is present on the raw table; check cancellations below before drawing any conclusion.
Total	17 / 36

The Ashtakoota results show both harmony and potential friction. Your Gana and Graha Maitri scores are high, indicating compatible temperaments and mental wavelengths, which fosters easy communication. However, a 6-8 Bhakoot between Moon signs suggests classic challenges to prosperity and emotional rhythm, though this is fortunately cancelled by friendly Moon-sign lords. A Nadi dosha is present and uncancelled, highlighting potential concerns for health and progeny that warrant attention.

Doshas & Cancellations

Male & Female

> The bride carries Mangal Dosha while the partner does not; weigh the cancellations listed rather than rejecting the match.

Nadi Dosha	Nadi dosha is present and not cancelled; give weight to health, constitution and progeny counsel.
Bhakoot Dosha	A 6-8 Bhakoot exists but the Moon-sign lords are friendly or identical, which cancels it.
Graha Maitri	Moon-sign lords are Saturn (groom) and Mercury (bride) — a friend relationship.
Mangal — Groom	From Lagna: clear · From Moon: clear · From Venus: clear — Mars does not occupy any of the six Mangal houses from Lagna, Moon or Venus.
Mangal — Bride	From Lagna: clear · From Moon: afflicted · From Venus: afflicted — Mars occupies 7th from Moon, 12th from Venus.

A Nadi dosha is present in your charts and remains uncancelled. This suggests a need for conscious attention to health, constitutional balance, and matters of progeny. While a 6-8 Bhakoot dosha exists between your Moon signs, it is auspiciously cancelled because your Moon-sign lords are friendly. The bride carries Mangal Dosha from her Moon and Venus, while the groom does not; this does not, by itself, represent a rejection factor for the match.

Individual Marriage Capacity

Male & Female

Marriage Capacity — Groom

Lagna / 7th sign	Pisces / Virgo
7th lord	Mercury — Makara, house 11
Dignity & strength	neutral; moderate
Occupants / aspects	None / Saturn, Rahu
6/8/12 links	None

The groom's chart indicates a workable but mixed marriage capacity. The 7th lord Mercury, though retrograde, is well-placed in the 11th house, suggesting gains through partnership. However, malefic aspects on the 7th house and afflicted karakas for wisdom (Jupiter is combust and retrograde) suggest that maturity and the ethical framework of the marriage may face pressure. Relationship quality and emotional stability are generally workable, requiring focused self-awareness.

Marriage Capacity — Bride

Lagna / 7th sign	Gemini / Sagittarius
7th lord	Jupiter — Simha, house 3
Dignity & strength	friend; moderate
Occupants / aspects	Rahu / Jupiter, Ketu
6/8/12 links	None

The bride's chart also shows a workable but mixed marriage capacity. Her 7th lord Jupiter is well-placed in a friendly sign, contributing positively to marital prospects. However, the presence of Rahu in the 7th house and affliction to the Moon by Mars suggest that emotional stability and day-to-day mood will require conscious attention. Her karaka for wisdom and maturity (Jupiter) is under pressure, indicating that the ethical frame of the marriage may need careful cultivation.

Navamsa, Cross-Chart & Timing

Male & Female

D-1 Promise vs D-9 Reality

Male	D-9 Lagna Libra; D-9 7th Aries (Mars, own). The Navamsa is stronger than the Rashi chart — the marriage matures and improves with time, even if the early promise looks modest.
Female	D-9 Lagna Scorpio; D-9 7th Taurus (Venus, own). The Rashi promise is brighter than the Navamsa — the relationship looks better from outside than it feels inside; conscious work sustains it.

The inner reality of marriage for the groom is stronger in the Navamsa chart than the Rashi chart. This indicates that the marriage will mature and improve over time, even if the early promise appears modest. For the bride, the Rashi promise is brighter than the Navamsa; the relationship may look better from outside than it feels inside, suggesting that conscious effort will be needed to sustain its internal quality.

Cross-Chart Compatibility

Moon ↔ Moon	the groom's Moon stands 8 signs from the bride's Moon (and 6 the other way). Emotional rhythms are out of phase; each may read the other's mood wrongly under stress.
Venus ↔ Mars	the groom's Venus stands 3 signs from the bride's Mars (and 11 the other way). Attraction and physical warmth are naturally sustained.
Mars ↔ Venus	the bride's Venus stands 8 signs from the groom's Mars (and 6 the other way). The reciprocal axis is strained; initiative and receptivity must be negotiated.
Mercury ↔ Mercury	the groom's Mercury stands 4 signs from the bride's Mercury (and 10 the other way). Communication is functional and improves with shared routine.
Jupiter ↔ Venus	the groom's Jupiter stands 11 signs from the bride's Venus (and 3 the other way). Generosity and grace flow between them; a classically blessing contact.

Key cross-chart contacts highlight both ease and challenges. The groom's Jupiter and bride's Venus form an auspicious connection, indicating generosity and grace that naturally flows between you both. However, your Moons stand in a challenging 8/6 relationship, meaning emotional rhythms may frequently be out of phase. Both the groom's and bride's Saturns strongly influence each other's Moons, which can translate into pressure or a sense of duty potentially crowding out warmth.

Dasha Timing — Next Five Years

Partner	Period	From	To	Tone

Male	Saturn / Mercury	2027-02-10	2029-10-20	supportive

Female	Jupiter / Mars	2027-07-05	2028-06-09	supportive
Female	Jupiter / Rahu	2028-06-09	2030-11-03	challenging

The groom is currently in a supportive Saturn/Saturn dasha until early 2027, followed by a highly supportive Saturn/Mercury dasha (7th lord) until late 2029, directly indicating marriage. The bride is currently in a supportive Jupiter/Moon dasha until mid-2027, followed by a supportive Jupiter/Mars dasha until mid-2028. Both charts align with supportive dashas for marriage within the next few years, though both also face challenging periods thereafter requiring patience.
